Low Voter Turnout Seen In Tuesday's Primary Election

An extremely low voter turnout and an apparent mood of dissatisfaction spelled trouble for incumbent county commissioners in Coffee County Tuesday.

With only about 35% of the voters, actually 381, even bothering to go to the polls, Coffee County voters turned out two incumbent commissioners and forced two others into a runoff. Only 2nd District Commissioner Gilmer Grant is assured of returning to office for another four-year term.

An interesting figure in the election of Grant is that he was elected with 54% of the registered voters. These figures indicate that there is, according to Grant himself, "a crying need for more interest by the people of Coffee County."

Page 9 of this newspaper carries a beat-by-beat breakdown of the voting in Tuesday's election, but the results are listed here.

The overwhelming victor was Tax Collector Ronnie Burns, running for the 5th office of Revenue Commissioner. Burns carried every box in the county and won with 4438 votes, compared to 1367 votes for the only other candidate, Tax Assessor Mac McKinney.

High vote-getter among the commissioner candidates was Eugene Bradley, who defeated two-term incumbent Don Smith, by a vote of 3470 to 2463. Bradley carried Elba, Enterprise and most of the other boxes enroute to his win. Wednesday morning a spokesman for Bradley said he was looking forward to working for the people of Coffee County, and would carry out the promises he made during the campaign.

Newly-elected commissioner, son of long-time commissioner, the late Buster Bowden, said Tuesday night he would start Wednesday morning going around thanking groups of people who had voted for him. Bowden defeated one-term commissioner Max J. Reeves by a vote of 3225 to 2599 for Reeves.

District 3 Commissioner Rex Boutwell faces a runoff with challenger Robert Stephens. Boutwell received 2824 votes, Stephens received 2061, and the third man in the race, Lewis McInnis, received 1204 votes. This race attracted the largest number of votes on the local ballot, with 6089 voters casting ballots. Boutwell would have needed 3045 votes to carry this one without a runoff. At presstime there was no official word, but it was assumed that Stephens would carry the race into the runoff.

The District 4, Place 2, race for the seat of incumbent Bennie Beckham is also still in progress, as Beckham will face a runoff with political newcomer Charlie Mack Martin. Beckham received 2645 votes, Martin 1929 and the third man in the race, H.F. Cardwell, received 1412. Again there is no official word on this race, but observers expect

Martin also to carry out this race for three more weeks and let the voters decide.

There were two school board seats up for election, and only one incumbent running. Incumbent Frank Britt won over challenger Bill Daughtry with a vote of 3115 to 2351 for Daughtry.

Incumbent Charles Mallory chose not to seek re-election, and Preston Kelley, Jr. heavily defeated the only other candidate for that office, Heflin Smith, by a vote of 3720 to 1256 for Smith.

Billy Eagerton was unopposed for a seat on the Commission from District 2, presently being held by Jack Hornsby.

Candidates Must

Submit Report In

15 Days

Candidates for office in Tuesday's primary have 15 days to submit a financial report to the Probate Judge, according to Coffee County Democratic Chairman Jackson W. (Billy) Stokes. Stokes stressed this was 15 days from the day of the election.

Republicans Cast

Ballots For Denton

Republican voters in Coffee County turned out in such small numbers it could be classified as a scattering of votes. Many voters opted to vote in the Democratic primary to be able to vote in the local races. The lone Republican race was for the nomination for the office of U.S. Senator, and there were only two candidates. Jeremiah Denton easily defeated Armistead Selden in Coffee County as well as statewide. A few over 400 Coffee County voters voted republican with 15 of those being from Elba.

While Selden carried Elba by a vote or two, Denton carried the county with a very high percentage, as he did statewide.

Phillips Resigns As Policeman Effective Sept. 12

Elba Policeman Jim Phillips submitted his resignation to the Elba City Council Tuesday night. It is effective September 12.

The Council accepted the resignation and voted unanimously to prepare a letter of commendation for his service to the city police department.

New Fire Department Shows Off Truck

The Five-Star Fire Department met last Tuesday night at Chestnut Grove to show off their new fire truck. The vehicle had been purchased from a Birmingham equipment dealer with donations and profits from barbecue dinners. Plans call for construction of a fire house and hopefully one additional vehicle in the near future. Plans are already underway for a fall barbecue.

Any person needing the services of the department should call either the Elba or the Brundidge police station, which will relay the message. They are also available for assisting neighboring fire departments.

Two professionally-trained firemen in the department are presently training the other firemen in operation of the equipment.

Birmingham minister denounces groups mixing religion, politics

By HOYT HARWELL
Associated Press Writer

BIRMINGHAM — While most clerics in Alabama are either backing groups such as Moral Majority or shying away from opposing them openly, one prominent pastor said Sunday, "they don't speak for me."

"The immorality of Moral Majority," was one of several reasons Dr. James A. Auchmuty gave for opposing what he termed "religious — hyphen — political groups."

Auchmuty gave his views in a statement from the pulpit of Shades Crest Baptist Church.

"I believe in a free church in a free state," his position paper said. "No church is to own a candidate and neither is the state to dictate to the church."

Auchmuty, pastor of the 1,400 member church for eight years, said groups such as Moral Majority, Christian Voice and Religious Roundtable "are purely political under a halo. A preacher uses a church-owned airplane to fly to their meeting in Dallas and he claims its a religious rally. A politician uses a state-owned plane for the same trip and he says it's a patriotic rally. This is nonsense."

Auchmuty said he also faced his opposition on scripture. "No where does the Bible wed God and country. The church should be a prophetic voice to the state, but not a captive of the state."

Such groups as Moral Majority, Auchmuty said, also turn him off because they do what is expedient. For example, "They holler against any governmental recognition of religion and yet one fundamentalist group wants to establish a Christian embassy in Washington."

In addition, he said, they proclaim their independence from denominations but then, when they need help, say that "all Christians are welcome to join them, for $25 a head."

Such groups vacillate, he contended.

"They print pictures of candidates and interviews with candidates in their publications, castigate other candidates and then say they are non-political. When is an endorsement an endorsement?"

Another contention by Auchmuty is that such groups are arrogant. "They claim those on the political right are the morally right, but I'm not sure the Bible mentions the Panama Canal or SALT."

Also, he said, "they are simplistic. They claim if someone is not with them, he's against what's right."

Of "the immorality of the Moral Majority," Auchmuty said the group's leader, the Rev. Jerry Falwell, fabricated part of an interview with President Jimmy Carter, and then when confronted about it, he said it was just an anecdote.

Auchmuty ended his statement by asking, "Why don't they declare what they are really up to and stick with it? If, in fact, they know."

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

The election results in Coffee County were in before this was written and it was my design to wait and give my opinion of the results. However, after reading the results, studying them again and all that, we old editor cannot give a "wrap-up" that makes much sense, "cause our little old brain just doesn't understand. First the low vote turnout normally indicates the voters are satisfied but this time the vote count showed a lot of discontent as two of the five incumbents lost outright, and two more are facing strong run-offs. Only Gilmer Grant is a clear-cut return to office and his margin of victory with only 54% of the votes cast. Only about 35% of the voters voted countywide with both city and county voters turning out in about the same percentages.

The statewide races turned out about as we expected, even though we didn't vote with but about half the winners. The only surprise we saw in the state races was in the Republican Senate race. There we thought that the old politician would win but the war hero surprised us. The TV ads with Denton stepping off that airplane, fresh from the POW camp and saying "God Bless America" thrilled us when it first happened, and apparently those voting on the Republican ticket Tuesday.

The race for the President of the United States officially started Monday and Ronald Reagan continues to suffer from hoof and mouth disease as he criticized President Carter for opening his campaign in the birthplace of the Klan. Well, that offended the people of Alabama and he will spend most of this week trying to talk his way out of that one as he spent last week talking his way out of a flare-up of the same disease when he spoke about China. We wonder what it will be next week?

Our old friend Reverend Jim Auchmuty left the local First Baptist Church seven or eight years ago and moved on to bigger territory in Birmingham, and now he is successfully moving out into... the world. Jim is still real popular with Elba folks. Keeps in touch with many, and a lot of Elba folks manage to attend church at his Shades Crest Baptist Church when in Birmingham. Last Sunday he took to task those who mask their politics behind church names or as he says "religious-political groups." He did this from the pulpit of his church but managed somehow to get statewide publicity. Now we realize Jim is a Baptist and we got sprinkled rather than dunked but he is pretty straight, and we continue to agree with him on his recent statements. Keep up the good work, Jim and bring Sue and the children to see us soon.

There are signs the recession is beginning to break and business will again boom in America. During the recent (current) recession business dropped, unemployment increased but inflation continued. Hopefully we will get the elections behind us and we can attack this big problem successfully.

Saturday morning we got a long-promised fishing trip to a private pond that has been properly managed and all that and the fishing was supposed to be great. Our older son, Chris, and I collected on a promise to him and decided we would catch some fish but not overdo the catch and wear out our welcome. Well, we didn't catch too many; in fact we only caught one bream and one bass. Both were nice fish, but we didn't find the pile of fish we expected... that is the story of our life.

SPORTS

Views From
THE PRESSBOXBy: Ricky Mulazz
Sports Editor

Well, the Elba Tigers kickoff their season tomorrow night, and I'm expecting a huge crowd at Geneva to cheer 'em on to win No. 1. The team and coaches have been working hard to get ready, and we should be at full speed for the season opener. It's going to be a tough game and I expect all our fans to stand and cheer when we hit the field, and keep cheering all through the game.

Let 'em know we're No. 1!

I went down to Kinston Friday night to watch Coach Rick Rainer's team play, and to be honest, I expected the Bulldogs to get beat. Boy, did I ever underestimate Kinston's power! The Bulldogs were in charge all the way (despite the closeness of the score), and except for little mistakes like dropped passes and penalties, they would have blown the game open in the first quarter.

Kinston is big, fast and well-coached, and if they'll keep working and improving, could just be the team to beat in their area.

There were a few surprises on the area scene, including: Daleville's win over Hartford; Ashford's win over Geneva; Greenville's win over Georgiana; and Opp's lopsided win over Florala. It looks like we've got some real strong teams in South Alabama this year, and that means the fans are in for quite a season.

Kathy and I went up to the National Softball Tourney in Montgomery last weekend and saw some real good teams. Jerry's Catering, of Miami, played in one of the games we saw and beat a team from Toledo, Ohio 39-4. Harold Kelley, a native of Damascus, poled 2 home runs in one inning, and I mean he knocked 'em a mile.

One homer I'll always remember was a 400-foot shot hit by "Mighty" Joe Young, which was his 315th of the season. That's a bunch of home runs!

Ye ole Polish Prognosticator came in the office bragging this week about hitting on 19 of 24 picks last week without even using his crystal ball. This week he said he'd again pick without any help - so, here goes . . .

ELBA VS. GENEVA

The Tigers were picked No. 1 in the state in a pre-season poll, and I'm sure the Geneva folks know it. The Panthers were upset last week and hope to turn the tide on Elba. Win No. 1 for Elba!

Elba 20 - Geneva 7

ARTON VS. NEW BROCKTON

The Gamecocks won big last week and could just make it two wins in a row this week in Arton. However, the Purple Cats are hungry and love to eat chicken!

Arton 20 - New Brockton 12

KINSTON VS. ZION CHAPEL

Look up your daughters and leave the babies at home - it'll be war this week in Kinston! The Bulldogs are lean and mean, and have a big win under their belts, while the Rebs are marching to yet another playoff berth. Look for the Dogs to survive!

COACH MACK WOOD. . . will guide his Tigers into action Friday night when they battle Geneva, in Geneva, at 7:30. Wood, in his fourth year at the Elba helm, has led his teams to a 23-8 record and two SAC grid titles.

The starting line-up for Elba against the Geneva Panthers will be: Offense - Russell Kelley (qb), Bobby English (fb), Don Horstead (tb), Ted Horstead or Troy Brown (te), Wayne Parker (lk.), David Dorsey (rt), Shane Meek or Dwain Rushing (G), Mason Morrow (C), Greg Hudson (G), Morris Davis (T) and Brad English, Hal Brunson or Dale Stinson (SE). On defense, it will be -

For us to win," said Wood, "our offense will have to play as good as it can, and do practice. We'll have to control the ball, and take it in and score when we get close. On defense, we'll have our hands full and will have to be exceptionally alert. If we make mistakes we can just hang it up! We all know it will be a real tough game and I hope our boys will rise to the occasion."

"Our defense may be more consistent than it was last year," added Wood, "but we've had some nagging injuries that have slowed us down in practice."

"Offensively," said Wood, "they run a pro set and really have a wide-open attack. They have a good looking offense and when they get rolling they are tough. All their receivers run good patterns, they have a good running back and a darn good quarterback, and to me their offense really looks sharp. On defense they are very aggressive. Geneva ran a lot of different defenses against Ashford, and played lot of players. They have a solid defensive club!"

"Geneva was a passing team against Ashford," continued Wood, "but I figure they'll do more running this week. They've got a new coach, and putting in a new system does cause problems, but I'm sure they worked hard and corrected their mistakes this week. Geneva has a good team, and I'm sure they'll look like an entirely different team this week against us."

Turning to his own team, Coach Wood stated, "We look average. It seems like we've been practicing for a year, and our boys are ready to hit somebody else. I don't know how consistent we can be, but we have to start somewhere and then improve as we go. You expect to make mistakes in your first game, I just hope we don't make too many. Last week our offense made a million little mistakes in a scrimmage, and that's something we just can't do. Chris English and Dale Stinson are both injured and question marks for the game, but besides that we're in good shape."

Around The Town

Mrs. Nellie B. Martin

***All activity had ceased. Quietness and darkness were evident at the Baptist pasteurium on Pinedale Drive. Yes, it was summer vacation for the Vaughns. Dr. Judson, Linda, Mark and Michael were going first north and later southwest. They would be covering many miles of hot, winding roadway.

A visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Vaughn, Sr., in Montgomery was first on the agenda. It was hard for Mark and Michael to wait for the surprises and extras that only the Vaughns so cunningly and cleverly instigate. It was soon on to Corinth, Mississippi. There the Clarette Paul, Dr. Vaughn's sister and family, were all set for an enjoyable visit from the Vaughns.

There were many things of joy and excitement. But, can you name anything more rewarding than a brother and sister's reminiscing of their memories of early childhood school days, church events, sweethearts and Senior Proms?

The Magnolia State is also the home of Rev. and Mrs. William Pruitt, Linda's sister. They are at home in Piquette. Well, that's about as far west as you can go and remain in Mississippi. However, this fine Christian family shared something of interest in their chaste town. At this point Dr. Vaughn no longer read the road map. Remaining on 59, the soon breezed into New Orleans. There they were the guests of Linda's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R.E. Glaze, Jr.

In a metropolitan city on the coast, like New Orleans at large, there's so much for the families to do together. The fun, food and fellowship never ceased for Mark and Michael, because Linda's younger sister and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Steve Dyess, were now in control. They are old enough to plan and lead, yet young enough to participate and help enjoy all activities.

All in all, the Vaughn family experienced many hours of pleasure, gratification, joy and happiness with their family members.

Now, there's activity and bright lights again on lovely Pinedale Drive in Elba.

***Mrs. Margaret Hasty of Moultrie, Georgia, has enjoyed a lovely visit with the Harry Jacobs' sons. Hasty is Cathy's mother. When grandmother arrives, John, Joe and Mary Margaret get all excited. They know there are surprises and unexpected treats!

***Miss Hilda Lecompte of Canton, Ohio, was a recent guest of her mother, Mrs. L.L. Lecompte, Rt. 1.

***Isn't it rewarding that a nice young lady like Mrs. Lois Whitley can hop aboard a jet, and in a matter of hours, be on the cool breezy beach of the blue Pacific?

Well, Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Helms of Sacramento, California, helped to make all the nice things Mrs. Whitley experienced mature. There were so many historical places to enjoy in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and even as far away as the glitter-city - Las Vegas!

The tours not only included museums, mansions and noted places of interest, but a trip through an old gold mine was most exciting.

Well, the Helms did more than guide and show for Lois. While there she was included in the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Helms' 25th Wedding Anniversary. Her description of this noted affair was most elegant. Too, the friendliness of the multitude of people that she met captivated her heart.

Completing this enjoyable visit, she jetted to Waco, Texas. There the Bart Whatleys were waiting to prove that they, too, were super hosts. Around the Dallas-Ft. Worth areas there is much to be seen and enjoyed. Just to fly out of the nation's largest and busiest airport, on a direct flight to Montgomery was a treat for Lois.

Mrs. Whitley, in her soft appreciative manner, described this vacation as one of her very best!

***Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ray Bryan and Bret, and Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Bryan, all of Elba, Rt. 2, enjoyed a few days

They leisurely and pleasantly meandered through the great Smoky Mountains. A few nights in Gatlinburg and Chattanooga, which are popular summer resort towns, gave them the idea that a lot of people like this part of the South. Beauty, pleasure and excitement met with their approval.

***Mr. and Mrs. Boots Deal of Andalusia had surprise or uninvited - guests Sunday. The Deals have an ideal river resort home in the midst of the beautiful and natural scenery of the classic Conecuh River.

Ross, Eva and Dixie found them comfortably lounging in the stillness and solitude of the woods. The lawns and boat landing were manicured to perfection and were most inviting.

All decked out in an array of bright vinyl night cushions, the large flat-bottomed pontoon gently bobbed with the waves.

The five Deals were soon off on a leisurely cruise down the lazy Conecuh River.

What better way to communicate with Nature in its full glory?

***Mr. and Mrs. Roy DeVane, Mrs. Irene Andrews, and Mrs. Quinzie Whitman enjoyed a ride and look-around in Montgomery last Saturday.

Some fortunate lumber companies and paint stores have greatly benefited economically from the political billboards along the streets, highways and special places of interest. It's a show to see the numbers of different office-seekers at intersection 26 and 441, at Seale, Alabama. You get the impression that somebody is out to win in Russell County!

Having their son, David, home for a month from Frankfurt, Germany, was the highlight of Gussie and Buck Smart's summer.

The month was too short for more than David's family. A lovely and vivacious brunette counted the days, too. However, David was most grateful and appreciative of all the thoughtfulness of so many of his friends and former school mates. He has now spent two years in Europe. But being stationed at Lindsey Air Base, near Frankfurt, is a typical day to be. He is in the very heart of Europe.

There are unnumbered historical places of interest to visit. A Rhine River cruise, Carmelite Monastery, the city's Cider Inn, and more. Modern Frankfurt is an ideal place to shop for superb German goods - cameras, cuckoo clocks and Dresden china.

Include a weekend pass and see the red-brick city of Heidelberg. Too, don't forget Berlin, where you can pass through Checkpoint Charlie. Your learning opportunities are golden - build a storehouse of memories and share them with us who are less fortunate, David.

Your return to the base left many happy memories. But you proved your love and appreciation and thoughtfulness when the two special ladies in your life - Gussie and Cara - each received a single long-stemmed red rose.

Too, I must say "thank you" for the nice compliment concerning "Around the Town." When you read it each week, remember you, too, are one of my favorites!

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

A good example is the best sermon.

Miss Wilson Honored With Pre-Nuptial Parties

The beautiful country home of Mrs. Tom Dyess was the setting for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Terri Wilson, bride-elect of Steve Brown. The shower was an event of Saturday, August 11, 1980. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Dyess, Mrs. Agnes Wilson, Mrs. Louise Boone, Mrs. Shirley Dean, Mrs. Lizzy Richardson, Mrs. Sara Fuller, Mrs. Grace Stevens, Mrs. Madge Johnson, Mrs. Earlene Jacobs, Mrs. Wayne Riddick, Mrs. Neil Kelley, Mrs. Carolyn Westbrook and Mrs. Thelma Johnson.

Decorations used throughout the house were yellow and white. The double front doors were accented by large yellow ribbons and green plants on either side.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Dyess and presented to the receiving line which consisted of Mrs. Nell Wilson, mother of the bride; Mrs. Clarence Brown, mother of the groom; and Miss Wilson.

Miss Wilson was lovely in a yellow party dress and matching shoes. She wore a white and yellow silk robe and corsage presented to her by the hostesses.

Miss Teresa Wilson, cousin of the bride, presided over the registry table, which was covered with a white satin cloth and accented with yellow rose buds in a silver vase.

The guests were invited into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served. The table was covered with a white lace cloth and a full net skirt. Yellow ribbon encircled the table, and large bows and streamers accented the front and ends.

Yellow punch was served from a large crystal punch bowl nestled in bay leaves and ivory accented with yellow martingolds. To offset the punch bowl was a silver candelabra holding five white burning tapers.

During her visit she traveled to Troy for an enjoyable day of shopping and entertaining "Uncle Van" and his Sigma Chi Fraternity brothers. She also enjoyed playing with her favorite cousin, Miss Molly Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Logan of New Brockton. Her favorite pastimes while at home with her Elba family include rolling with her puppy "Petunia" and swimming with her Uncle Scott at the Country Club.

Miss Lisa is the blonde, blue-eyed, six-year-old daughter of Mr. William Odell Jones, Jr., and the late Margaret English Jones of Milton, Florida. She will enter the first grade this fall in Milton.

English Participates In Workshop

Van D. English, of 402 Pell Avenue, Troy, was one of 675 students who participated in the 33rd annual Leadership Training Workshop of the Sigma Chi Fraternity held August 15-18 on the campus of Texas Tech University here.

The four-day program, which attracted more than 750 Sigma Chis from the Fraternity's 173 campus chapters in 43 states of the United States and four provinces of Canada, involved campus chapter operations, activities and discussions on ideas and methods for outstanding chapter operations, activities and scholarship.

The Sigma Chi Workshop, the largest in the Greek-letter world, is one of many similar sessions held by college fraternities throughout the summer.

Van, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Foy English of Elba, is a graduating senior English major at Troy State University. Since his involvement in Sigma Chi beginning in the fall of 1978, he has served his Fraternity as Pledge Class President, as Rush Chairman, and presently as Vice-President. His honors and activities at Troy State include membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, a national service and honorary society; in Who's Who among American College Students, Student Government Association Senator, and a Student Leader for Pre-College Orientation for two years.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas H. Moore of Gautier, and Mr. Ray Ham of Opp, Alabama, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Fuller of Andalusia, Alabama, and Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Ham of Elba, Alabama.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Weinketz, Jr., of Gautier, and he is the grandson of Mrs. Viola Eiland and the late William Preston Eiland of Wade, Mississippi, and Mr. Mae Miller and the late Philip Weinketz, Jr., of Allentown, Pennsylvania.

The church was decorated with lighted tapers and greenery in each window. The focal point was an arch with an 18-branched candelabrum holding burning white candles entwined with greenery. Heart-shaped candles and baskets of rainbow-colored gladys were identical floor-length gowns featuring scooped necklines gathered with wide ruffles edged with lace in pastel colors of the rainbow. They carried lace fans adorned with a single silk carnation to match the color of their gowns.

Candles were lighted by David Ham of Gautier, brother of the bride, and Mike Weinketz, sister of the groom.

The Coffee County Lake was the scene Tuesday night, Aug. 26, as the Pilot Club members, families and friends met for a 3rd annual family picnic. The cool breeze from the lake added to the enjoyment of the meal of grilled hamburgers, potato salad, baked beans and deserts prepared by the pilot members. As the children played beneath the trees or enjoyed a walk to the lake, the group visited, making new friends and enjoying old ones. The climax of the evening was a white elephant sale planned by the fund raising committee. Each member brought a wrapped article to be auctioned off. The bidding was friendly but competitive for each of the strangely wrapped, odd shaped articles, as even the young joined in. It was much like Christmas or a birthday as each article was unwrapped to see what had been purchased. The auctioneer, Jeff Bimbo and Dale Crowe, did a marvelous job and the club earned a good sum to help sponsor their projects for the year. Everyone had a wonderful time and it was with regret that darkness forced an end to the festivities.

Those attending were: Carol and Lorie Fudge, Ina Carl Brown, Megan and Tim Bowers, Hollman and Jonnie Taylor, Carolyn and Mrs. Cecil Mooney, Kim, Douglas, and Derek Marler, Jeff Gena and Melissa Bimbo, Cynthia and Mike Holderfield, Valerie and Mike

McGuire, Dale, Nancy, Leah and Emily Crowe, Syble Stivers, Chuck Cox, Carrie Jacobs, David and Summer Murt Haynes, Nancy, Bob, Kathryn, and Becca Jones, Juanita, Dean, Deana,

CHRISTMAS TREES
Jack Wise and his family have a beautiful Christmas tree production project. Wise has been producing trees for 3 years, and has some perfectly gorgeous trees which will be available this Christmas. Wise told a group of folks visiting his place the other day that he can sum up his Christmas tree production project in three words - work, work, work.

His farm is located about 5 to 6 miles out of Elba on the Elba-Samson Highway. He has several hundred Virginia pine which are the best looking trees I have ever seen.

Ralph Sharpless of Elba also has some trees coming along. Both of these fellows are doing some excellent work.

CLOSE WATCHING
September is a critical month in the growth and development of soybeans. Most of the beans in Coffee County are going to need several rains to mature the crop. In many cases, on early beans and, in fact, on all ages, yields have been severely reduced. However, with ample rains, there should be a recovery in yield prospects.

Foliage feeding worms and podworms can be extremely damaging to beans in September. Watch your fields closely and when you have an excessive buildup of worms, go ahead and spray, using some of the effective materials. Podworms can be damaging in that they feed directly on the pods. Auburn entomologists say that when you have as many as one podworm per foot of row, you should begin treatment. You will have to examine each field closely each week or even more often to keep up with damaging insects.

BROWN BAGGING IT
Toting your lunch used to mean a plain paper bag or black metal lunch box. Today, we find many unique ways to carry lunch to school or work.

A couple of ways I'd like to share are using the insulated lunch bag or bags, such as a book bag, plastic lined purse, small duffel bag or even a nice diaper bag.

I have several good recipes and tips on carrying lunches. If you are interested, call our office at 894-5596 or 897-2776 for this information.

PIMIENTO
Many stories have been told about Christopher Columbus and the curious things he found in the new world to take back to Europe. This is one of those stories, and also the story of how one of Columbus' discoveries came back to America more than 400 years later - as one of our most popular and attractive foods and to create a new industry.

On one of his voyages, Columbus became interested in a plant with a bright red fruit. He gathered seed and took them back to Spain. When the plants were grown there, the fruit was mild, but with a decided peppery flavor. They were named "pimientos." Spanish for pepper, and became a popular local food. Later, they were even canned for export.

One day in Georgia, a farmer who specialized in vegetable crops saw cans of Spanish pimientos in a store. He wondered if he could grow them, so he wrote to the American Consul in Spain and asked for help in getting seed. That was in 1911.

In the Spring of 1912, he grew plants from six ounces of seed and set out an acre and a half of pimientos. The harvest was good, but there was no market.

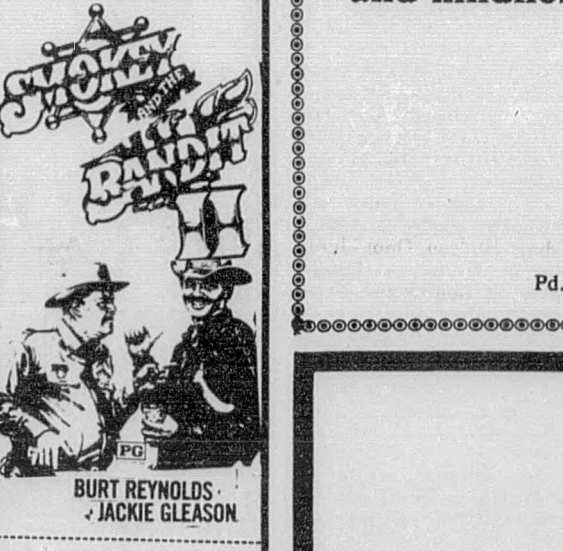

He eagerly anticipated this school year. They have arranged some excellent programs for the year. The young people are going to be in for a good experience in 4-H.

Just recently we met with the principals of all the county schools in Coffee County to lay plans for another good year in 4-H. How great it is to have the total cooperation of the school officials in further developing the youth program! About 1800 young people will be enrolled in 4-H in the county and some of the city schools and out-of-school clubs.

Four-H agents Jack Tatum and Angela Hughes are eagerly anticipating this school year. They have arranged some excellent programs for the year. The young people are going to be in for a good experience in 4-H.

4-ETER 2:6-9

Lots. We must use our capabilities and knowledge to stand against that which we know to be wrong and to stand for that which we know to be right. If we will stand up in sincerity God will show us when and where to stand.

(7) "And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:"

(8) "For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds."

(9) "The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished."

We hear a great deal of talk today about the silent majority. But, it is time the silent majority came out of their silence and began to speak in behalf of the truths they hold. We cannot accomplish if you will use common sense and facts. We also say, well that doesn't pertain to me so why should I be concerned? Lot was a righteous and a good man, he failed to use his abilities and knowledge to stand against that which he knew to be wrong nor did he stand for that which he knew to be right. Lot's failure resulted in his personal hurt and possibly the destruction of two cities. We must be that which we do not allow ourselves to be modern day
